

COCKTAIL

SINCLAIRE

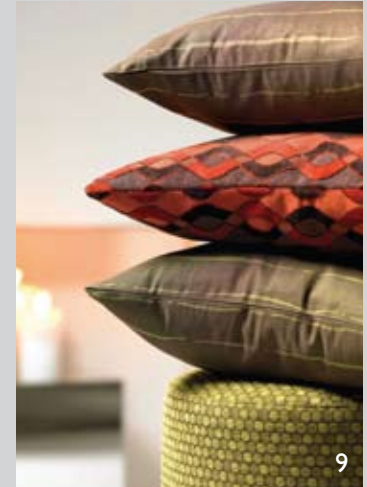

The image shows a corner of a room with a white wall and a white surface. A teal curtain with a white and brown floral pattern hangs from the top. A red cushion is visible on the wall behind the curtain. In the foreground, there are two patterned pillows: one with a red and gold geometric pattern and another with a blue and white geometric pattern. A semi-transparent grey box with white text is overlaid on the center of the image.

when designing this collection I wanted to create something which was fresh and invigorating and which combined energy and sophistication – I have achieved this by combining bold shapes with movement and fluidity, and a range of fresh new colours which I believe perfectly reflect the mood of the market today – I believe these combinations work beautifully together; and whilst the overall look is bold and confident, it has a subtlety and sophistication which is crucial to the high end hospitality and leisure markets anna o'doherty, design director
